WHAT IS LANCASHIRE LINE?

The Lancashire Cricket Lottery Department was formed in 1994 with it's main objective being the support of Lancashire Cricket and the development of cricket at all levels throughout the County.

The Lancashire Line weekly draw is the main fundraising activity of the Lottery Department and has so far raised over £2 million.

WHY SHOULD I JOIN?

By joining you will be helping support cricket at all levels in Lancashire from club cricket to vital community projects.

It costs just £1 per week to join cricket's No. 1 prize draw, which has paid out over £2.5 million in prize money.

HOW DO I JOIN?

You can join by visiting lancashirecricket.co.uk/lotteries

For £1 per week you will receive ten numbers which will be entered into the draw each and every week.

A full list of weekly winners can be found on the Club website, lancashirecricket.co.uk/foundation and all winners will be notified by post.

Join now and you could be our next lucky winner!
Players must be aged 16 years or over.
